HOW THE SLUMP HITS THE STOCK FARMER.

A. J. Graff is one of our closest observing stock farmers and has been in that business successfully for a number of years. The desperate straits to which that business has been brought by the depression is graphically told by the following figures compiled from sales bills in Mr. Graff's possession.

On February 27, 1930, just three years ago, Mr. Graff sold to John L.
Rehe a truck load of calves as follows:

One at 11.25c, wt. 715 lbs., $80.43
One at 10.25c, wt. 270 lbs., 27.67
Two at 10.25c, wt. 710 lbs., 72.77
One at 12.00c, wt. 610 lbs., 73.20
One at 11.00c, wt. 485 lbs., 53.25
One at 11.00c, wt. 510 lbs., 56.10

These calves, which at that time averaged nearly 11 cents on the hoof, would bring at this time about 3 cents per pound, a decline within three years of nearly 400 per cent.

On January 17th just passed, Mr.
Graff sold a corn-fed cow weighing 1190 pounds at 2.35c, grossing him $25.85.

Small wonder farmers are discouraged and business at a low ebb.

LADIES' BRIDGE CLUB.

A note of unusual interest was achieved in the clever party given by Mrs. R. W. Speece last Thursday afternoon for the Ladies' Bridge Club.

Tallies and other bridge appointments featured a pink elephant theme. The chosen idea was further successfully carried out during the serving hour with the Firecrackers Quintet, composed of Misses Mary Emma Finger, Bernice Speece, Bernice Chancey, Gen Brucks and Mary Kath Wilson, singing the popular "Pink Elephants".

A savory luncheon course of stuffed crab was served with coffee and a sweet course at the conclusion of the bridge.

Mrs. J. M. Finger came into the Club as a new member.

Those present were Mesdames Ed.
Connevey, J. M. Finger, O. H. Miller, L. J. Brucks, Alice Reinhart, Earl Starnes, Fletcher Davis, O. B. Taylor, F. H. Schweers, L. E. Heath and Horace Bradley, Miss Lillian Brucks and the hostess, Mrs. Speece.

H. T. Jones, pastor of the Madison dress the High School students and youth of today to the proposed plan to legalize the sale of liquors in our rising generation of young men and women are more directly concerned than others in this proposed legislation. Our entire community of citizens, both men and ladies are invited to hear Dr. Jones. He will bring a message of intense interest to every one.

BAPTIST NEWS NOTES.

On Wednesday night of this week there was held at the Baptist church a meeting of vital interest to our Sunday School work. Mr. Fluker, the Superintendent, presided and spoke in deep interest concerning the matter. He proposed a monthly workers' conference on the subject; also a weekly teachers' meeting and a Sunday School Social to be held during the month of February. His program was agreed to by some twenty-four workers present and a Committee was appointed to make complete arrangements for the Social. Let all come next Sunday and hear more fully about it. At the close of the meeting, which lasted not quite two hours, delightful refreshments were served all, which was made more interesting by the Valentine coloring given to it.

On next Sunday the services at the Baptist church will be held at the usual hours. At the 11 o'clock hour the pastor will speak on "The Most Remarkable Man in all history".
And from the oldest book ever written. Better come. You will like it, and you will be heartily welcomed.
Old-fashioned, heart to heart, clear, earnest Bible preaching may always be had at the Baptist church. Martin Luther was a "straight shooter" as a preacher. The reformation was brought on mainly by one great biblical text, to-wit: "The just shall live by faith." How simple and yet how sublime. Come and worship with us.

R. W. MERRILL,
Pastor.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

There will be English service on Jan. 29 at 10:30. The sermon topic will be: "My Son, Give Me Thine Heart". We welcome all who do not have a church home to come in and worship with us.

We are especially delighted by seeing so many children in church during the past Sundays. Our sermons are prepared with the children in mind, and we trust that they will receive added blessings by sanctifying the Holy Day. We are keeping count of the church attendance now and last Sunday 27 children were in attendance. "Bring up a child in the way he should go, and even when he is old, he will not depart therefrom."

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Amanda Muennink on Feb. 1 at 2 P. M. Sister Sophie Langner of Knippa, who is a deaconess in the Lutheran church, will deliver an address on deaconess work. Every member will find it well worth while to make every effort to be present.

The Pastor.

DIED.

Benjamin Reitzer, a resident of D'Hanis, died at his home here January 17, 1933, following a short illness, and was laid to rest the next day by Rev. Dean F. Maas, at the Catholic cemetery by the side of his sisters, Ottilia Reitzer and Thekla M. Deckert.

He was born August 3, 1883, at Vandenborg, Texas. He was happily married to Janie Lubbe on February 8, 1906, this union being blessed with eleven children. Two preceded him in death, dying in infancy. He leaves to mourn besides his grief-stricken wife and children, five brothers and two sisters.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of all who know them.

BIRCH, MAGICIAN, THURSTON'S SUCCESSOR, HERE.

Announcement was made today that Birch, the famous magician, whom Thurston, reigning king of magic, has publicly declared to be the only magician sufficiently talented to be his successor, when he retires from the stage in the near future, will play an engagement in Hondo, at High School Auditorium, Monday night, January 30, 1933.

The Birch show is one of the largest magic shows that has ever toured this country. Equipment, fittings, scenery and effects valued in excess of $25,000, are carried and will be seen at the local performance.
Of the entire mystifying array, in which are included many illusions which baffle even the understanding and eyes of other magicians of prominence, perhaps the most interesting is that of the Vanishing Pony, in which Princess, a beautiful miniature horse, is caused to disappear into thin air.

The current tour is Birch's twelfth

METHODIST ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The sanest thinkers of our time are calling attention to the need of the dynamic that is to be derived from the Christian Church. This need can be met only by every individual realizing his own need and taking the trouble and making the effort that is necessary to receive this spiritual preparation for life's responsibilities.

We recognize that after one has lapsed into an indifferent attitude that it requires special effort to get back into church attendance. Will you, if you happen to be one of those who do not go to church, make this effort? It is for your own good, for the good of your home, country, neighbor, and the world.

A welcome awaits you at the Methodist Church to think with us on the larger relationships of life.

Subject for Sunday morning: "The Challenge We Face." Forces properly directed become very beneficial, but permitted to go undirected or pass beyond control become a great menace and often very destructive.

Evening subject: "The Serpent and the Bird."

Men, we want you in one of the classes for men, either at the church or in the class down in town. You are missing something. Make up your mind to be in one of these groups.
You have a place; we would like to see you filling it. We are in a day when we need this fellowship. It will help you. Try it.

P. E. LANCASTER,
Pastor.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met in the home of Mrs. T. C. Barnes Monday, Jan. 23, with eleven members present.

The meeting was opened with a song, "Savior Pilot Me". Then the President, Miss Bertha Newton, gave a talk urging the members to help her make this a better year of service in the missionary field of labor.
She read several verses of Psalm 46, wherein the church shows the confidence which she has in God. Miss Newton gave "Spiritual Cultivation" and "Study" as the two main aims of the Women's Missionary Society for the year of 1933.

Mrs. P. E. Lancaster led in a prayer, after which the superintendent of the various departments gave reports on the minutes of the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, which convened in Gonzales in the month of April last year.

The meeting closed with a prayer by all present.

annual one and he has in that length of time gathered together a most impressive program of mystifying illusions and manifestations of magic. His breadth of experience as a magician and his own attractive personality make him one of the most capable and pleasing entertainers the magic world has ever produced.

Tickets for the local engagement are priced at 25 cents for adults.
They are on sale in advance. If the

The Birch company offers a sensational program of amazing feats of magic varied with pleasing musical features and novelties. Heading the Birch staff of assisting ar-ists is Mabel Sperry, hailed by critics as the world's greatest girl xylophonist. Miss Sperry charms music lover everywhere with brilliant solos on her Artist's Special Xylophone.

The annual meeting of St. John's at New Fountain, a segment of the Quihui parish, was fairly well attended. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mr. John Lindeburg. Mr. Elmer Nietenhoefer was welcomed as a new member. The election gave Mr.
Rolf Saathoff a unanimous vote for the new vestryman in place of Mr. F.
Nietenhoefer who retired from office after a long and faithful service in that capacity. Sincere thanks are due him. A number of needed repairs, improvements and purchases were taken care of. Messrs. C. Nietenhoefer and Aug. Stiegler were appointed auditing committee for the books of the treasurer. The future activity was committed to the Lord's blessing.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Leibfarth were welcome visitors on our premises. They were accompanied by our old friend, Mr. H. W. Pfennig from San Antonio, the versatile representative of the Lutheran Aid Society, and it was not a business call, but a real visit, indeed.

Candidates for Congress 15th Congressional District

ENDORSED BY HOME PEOPLE.

In response to a call Monday to —fifteen or twenty people over the county, more than 100 citizens met in the courthouse here Tuesday night to discuss the candidacy of F. W. Pulliam for Congress. There were voters from every precinct in the county present.

G. C. Jackson explained the purpose of the meeting saying that heretofore we were more or less up in the air about how and when an election would be called to vote for a candidate to succeed Hon. John N. Garner in Congress but now that the matter was somewhat definitely determined he thought it opportune for the citizens of Zavala County to get behind the candidacy of Mr.
Pulliam in a determined effort to put him over. R. S. Crawford was elected temporary chairman and presided over the meeting.

Mr. Pulliam asked for permission to say a few words and said he didn't want our people to take any public action toward endorsing him unless they felt him worthy and capable and had some chance, at being elected. He then explained how he, with a few friends, had visited about 20 of the 23 counties in the district and from what they learned had good reason to believe he has an equal if not better chance than any other candidate. Some of these reasons he gave, all of which were verified by G. C. Jackson, A.
P. Hancock, Everett Anglin, Henry Mercer and Mr. Carter, and possibly others.

From the reports given, it appeared that Mr. Pulliam has more than an even break in practically all of the "upper" counties and would get a fair percentage of votes in the "lower" counties as some outstanding men are endorsing him. A motion was made and unanimously voted that a permanent "Pulliam for Congress Club" be organized. Scott Pegues was elected permanent chairman and R. S. Crawford secretary, and plans made to open an office immediately, from which a campaign is to be directed. A committee of five is to be appointed by the chairman to whom reports may be made.

Many talks were made by those attending the meeting and the meeting was charged and surcharged with a spirit of loyalty and cooperation, the burden of each talk being for Zavala County voters to rally around Pulliam and give him 100 per cent support. Another point stressed throughout the meeting was that each and everyone make it a personal matter to boost Pulliam everywhere all the time.

We might mention some points brought out by each speaker, all holding him up as a man thoroughly capable and qualified to represent the entire 15th Congressional District.
Perhaps no other person in the entire district is more thoroughly conversant with its needs nor could present a more convincing argument in our behalf, and could absolutely be depended upon to protect the interests of the entire district.

It was mentioned that he is not a lawyer nor politician but has reasoning power to get at the bottom of a proposition and diplomatic in presenting a point.

Among those who spoke on this occasion were: G. C. Jackson, R. S.
Crawford, Henry Mercer, S. D. Carter, Rev. S. M. Hull, Rev. G. B. Holloway, W. T. Childress, L. H. Upchurch, Mrs. Holloway, all of Crystal City, W. H. Withington and J.
P. Warren of La Pryor, W. G. Orr of Cometa, Geo. W. Wets of Batesville, and possibly others. It was one of the most harmonious and enthusiastic political meetings we have attended in a long time.—Zavala County Sentinel.

A special committee was appointed to arrange everything.

On Wednesday Miss Mayfield and Dr. Meyer examined the pupils of our school. Almost all were found physically fit. The next meeting of Economy the Best Policy

The man who works for a living today Had better be careful, save part of his pay.
For he never knows when his wages may drop And his pay check, too, could easily stop.
He who spends all as he goes along May see hard times when something goes wrong.
Now is the time to lay something by.
Begin today; you can if you try.
The Hondo State Bank has found the safe way Is always to save part of your pay.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lynch and Miss Louisa Metzgar motored over to Uvalde Sunday to visit their cousin, Mrs. Pulliam. Mrs. Pulliam is the mother of F. W. Pulliam of Crystal City, who is now an active candidate for Congress to succeed Judge Garner who vacates the place March 4th when he qualifies as Vice President.

Mr. Max Otto, one of Farming's readers residing at Karnes City, while returning to his home from a business trip to Spofford, stopped over yesterday to pay us a call. Mr.
Otto has been a long time reader of FARMING and likes the paper so well he extended his date considerably ahead. Mr. Otto was accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Otto, and they had been looking over some ranch property owned by them in the Spofford country.

A recent letter from V. H. Blocker, who has been in the American Consular Service for several years and stationed at Asuncion, Paraguay, in South America, brings his regards to Hondo friends and expresses his regrets at not having been able to visit Hondo before this time. He writes, "The Anvil Herald has been coming through regularly. I always look forward to it as it gives me the news from home about as well, I believe, as if I were there to receive it first hand."

Marvin Schweers, local agent for the Gulf Refining Co., has our thanks for a useful pocket calendar printed on an aluminum plate. On the back of the calendar, his company presents a message which should make all stop and think. It is this: "A Federal gasoline tax of 1c per gallon and a State gasoline tax of 4c per gallon bear heavily upon the motorist.
Fifty cents represents tax on every 10 gallons of gasoline you buy. Gasoline is the most heavily taxed commodity today."

Thanks to those subscribers who have renewed for their papers and the help afforded by a 30c reduction in the state and county taxes, the M. E. has paid his taxes without borrowing the money—but it was the closest call since he has been a taxpayer, now over a third of a century.
If those who still owe us don't hustle around and come across, however, the temporary relief may make it all the harder to get across the dull times just ahead. But, any way, the candidat's will respect us for at least one more year. And that's "somen"!!

Among the out-of-town people attending the funeral of the late Dr.
H. S. Kirby last week were: John H.
Kirby and Fred Rawcliffe of Houston; Mrs. A. M. Hill of Kountze, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hill, Mrs. Y.
E. Boehm, Miss Addalee Boehm, Mrs.

Clary, all of Beaumont; Mr. John T.
Kirby, Mr. J. F. Slater, Mr. William Slater, Mrs. W. R. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Heerte, Mrs. Tom Wall, Mr. Warren Wilcutt, Mr. M. Saccar,

Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mercer and Mrs. Potter Alger of Crystal City.

pains in my shoulders, arms and legs I could hardly dress myself or thirty pounds in weight and felt like I was losing all the strength and vitality I had.

"Sargon and Sargon Pills took

DEVINE NEWSLETS

From The Devine News. MUCH WORK DONE ON THE HONDO ROAD.

Accepting a seat in Rev. A. M.
Foster's car, this editor and the preacher ran over to Hondo Monday morning, for a short drive. Pastors and representative men from Hondo, Devine, Yancey and New Fountain, met there to consider the pending campaign on repeal. Revs. Merrill Lancaster and Dechert, after a brief conference, were appointed a "Steering Committee" to see about county-wide meetings and complete organization of the friends of prohibition in this county. Much work is being done on both sides of the Hondo river, grading and graveling this important road, and if a short stretch on the Liveoak Slough can be finished in gravel, we shall soon have an all-weather road to the county seat—without the old time mud that forced us around fifty miles over asphalted roads.

FROM YANCEY.

After several days of warm weather, a sudden change to winter came, with some drizzling rain. If it continues there will be a good season in the ground.

A good many hogs were killed during last week and with plenty of lard, sausage and backbone there is no reason why folks should talk of hard times.

Prof. Stendebach was confined to his bed for several days last week with a severe cold, probably flu; and Miss Dorothy Burgen filled his place in the school room.

Mr. Taney Klein and his mother were in Hondo Tuesday on business.

Mr. Fritz Bohmfalk was in Hondo Wednesday and Thursday attending court.

Mrs. J. W. McCaughan returned from San Antonio Wednesday after spending a few days at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Allen, who was at the Nix Hospital suffering from severe burns.

Miss Ida Ward is at home after several days stay at the Medina hospital, where she was called to nurse a patient.

We are glad to report Mrs. Ernest Wiemers improving from an attack of pneumonia. She has been moved out of the hospital, and will remain at the home of Mr. Benjamin Wiemers for some time.

Mr. R. L. Brantley received a message from Luling that his mother was very seriously ill. We hope she will soon be recovered from her illness.

Dick Weekley was quiet sick with sore throat and other ailments Wednesday night and Thursday.

Mr. Roland Gaines of Hondo was here Thursday on business, seeing prospective automobile buyers.

Little Audra Vee McCrea celebrated her second birthday Wednesday with a party given by his mother.
Quite a little bunch of youngsters were present and enjoyed the party, and more so the refreshments.

Mrs. Herbert Fessler was very sick last Wednesday and Thursday, perhaps caused from flu and cold, and is doing better.

Messrs. George and Herman Faser-ler and sister, Mrs. John G. Bohm-falk, were in Hondo Wednesday on business.

HORNETS TO HAVE INITIAL GAME IN SAN ANTONIO.

Girls To Play Trio at Fair Grounds Wednesday.

The Hondo Hornets, composed of local girls, will go to San Antonio Monday night, January 30, for an exhibition game with Joske's Mannequins at Woodlawn Lake. The Joske team is a member of the City Basketball League, all games of which are played on Thursday, but whose policy it is to have practice tilts on Monday nights with out of the City teams. Last Monday night the Mannequins tied with Crystal City in a vigorous game. It is the hope of the locals to take some of the poise out of the Mannequins when they get in the Hornets' nest.

The San Antonio try-out is to be followed by a game Wednesday night, February 1st, on the home court, at the Fair Grounds. The visiting team will be from "Rio," fast and husky players who badly defeated the Hornets last year.

The Hornets had a splendid practice Wednesday night, with two new players, Charlotte Miller and Perry Chamberlain, added to those who reported last week. They are Mrs. Joe Meyer, Mrs. Rudy Rath, Misses Anne Brucks, Regina Nester, Mary Ruth Cameron, Anne Davis, Elizabeth Holloway, Hettie Nester, and Thelma Lynch.

Don't forget the game Wednesday night, 8 P. M. at the Fair Grounds.
All basketball fans come out and boost the locals. Small admission fee will be charged.

DON'T SUFFER ANOTHER DAY

Sufferers from rheumatism need more than the mere temporary relief that comes from the use of pain relievers. The system must be freed from the poisons of this agonizing disease.

When your throbbing, swollen joints begin to subside, when aching nerves and muscles begin to relax, when poisons begin to dissolve and drain from the system, you will know beyond a doubt that the RU-

AMONG THE BUSY BEES.

That wonderful fall honey flow is well on yet. Most bees are overcrowded for room because of the beekeeper's inability to reach them with empty supers and hives. They will go into winter strong and well supplied with honey that will mean early building up into very strong colonies next Spring.

The Huajilla is expected to come in with a heavy crop of the world's finest honey next Spring. Be ready for it with enough room at the proper time.

Honey prices have not yet made any climb upward although our Hoover friends make the broad claim that most of our commodities show an upward trend.

We have been successful in disposing some honey for cash and for things that can be bought for honey, i. e. feed, grain, groceries, pigs, telephone service, oil, gas, etc. If some of our big money bags think that the hoarding of coin will do them any good, just let them have their fun; we will trade with what we have.

When a creature of the genus homo suffers from toothache it might be well to tell him that he has been a regular, daily consumer of honey, his pains may have been avoided.

H. D. Murry of Magnet, Texas, says that the general depression does not seem to have lessened the people's taste for honey. Oh, no, Mr. Murry! It did not. But I find that it lessened to quite an extent the people's ability to buy said honey, and also their willingness to pay a fair price for same.

A writer in the Beekeepers' Item claims that the lumber on the hives is too thin. For my use they are heavy enough; but, in case they are not for Bro. Sturdevant and others, they have my permission to use 2 or 3 inch thick boards to make their hives with or use some of the D'Hanis hollow tile.

November the 7th to the 12th inclusive is National Honey Week. Remember the beekeeper and stock up on honey for your health's sake and for the sake of your friend who is trying to make ends meet with the sweetest and best of all sweets. Why not?

From Berlin under date of Aug. 30 they tell us that the Graf Zeppelin left there for South America with a cargo of Czechoslovakian bees.

Woman's Home Companion for August lists honey in tubes as a new convenience for summer days. O. K. Only I presume that honey in tubes would be a good deal more expensive than honey in 60 pound cans, but would not taste a bit better. We prefer to sell it in the big cans cheap but, if a market opens up for it in tubes, we will also fill tubes.

A writer in a bee paper says that the Hebrew word for honey-bee is "Deborah". I am not enough versed in Hebrew to either prove or disprove him, but any Hebrew or she-brew who will holler "Deborah" at our honey house will get honey.

LOUIS BIEDIGER, LaCoste, Texas.

HONEY DROP CAKES

2 tablespoonsful honey 1 cup sugar
1 cup shortening
(1-2 butter, 1-2 lard) 1-3 cup buttermilk or sour cream 2 or 3 eggs well beaten 1-4 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, orange or lemon as suits taste 3 1-2 cups flour

Batter must be stiff enough to drop from spoon on greased pan and bake in a moderate oven. These will run together on baking and must be cut apart with a knife, but are much better than rolled, besides being less trouble.

INDUSTRY CONTRIBUTES TO AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY.

"It has been demonstrated that there can be industrial prosperity for only a limited time without a corresponding agricultural prosperity," remarks the Kansas City Star. "But it has never been demonstrated that there can be a high degree of agricultural prosperity without industrial prosperity. It has taken a long time to learn this lesson, and there are still too many who have not thought it worth the learning."

As Progressive Texans, Inc., pointed out some weeks ago, industrial New England eggs and butter were bringing 22 and 23c a dozen and pound respectively when the same products were bringing 7c and 8c in Texas. The essential difference between New England and Texas is industrial development. Texas has 156,000 industrial wage earners with an annual payroll of $200,000,000. New England, of less area and population, has 1,100,000 industrial wage earners with an annual payroll of $1,345,000,000.

There is no competition between industry and agriculture—indeed, they are a complement to each other, and both thrive best where both are fully developed, for the prosperity of the one is essential to the permanent prosperity of the other.

Mrs. Isaac Wilson left the early part of the week for Corpus Christi where she is helping nurse her two granddaughters, Evelyn Jane and Peggy Gilliam, through the measles. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Gilliam.

KEEP BEES FOR FRUIT AND HONEY.

By L. A. Hawkins

Agricultural Extension Department International Harvester Company.

The average person thinks of bees in terms of honey, but leading scientists tell us the bee's greatest function is its service to agriculture. One expert says the honey-bee is of more value for the service it performs in pollinating fruit and other flowers than for the honey produced. Commercial bee-keeping is a profitable enterprise.

A few colonies of bees can be supported by local plants in almost all communities. Bees make a very profitable sideline hobby for the farmer or persons having back-yard space in towns and cities. A half dozen colonies will give a nice net return for the honey alone, to say nothing of their value as agents in pollinating fruit and vegetable flowers. Bees are not difficult to handle, particularly the "Italian" strain, and few living things offer more interesting studies and diversions than bees.

The flowers of most of our fruits are sterile, so far as self-pollination is concerned, and we recognize two agents in cross-pollination. One is the wind which, until recent years has had its value much overestimated. The wind is chiefly effective in cross-pollinating flowers with dry, dusty, powdery pollen, like grasses and grains. The pollen of fruit flowers is heavier, sticky, and often of a gummy nature requiring other means of pollination.

Bees rank first among all our pollinating insects, and orchardists are now realizing the true value of bees in connection with successful fruit production. Most of them keep bees in or near orchards, more to aid in pollinating flowers than for honey production, but the honey is usually a profitable sideline of the business.

Unfortunately spraying at the wrong time kills thousands of our honey-bees. If spray recommendations and calendars are followed the damage will result to bees. Never spray when plants are in full bloom. Sometimes nectar-producing plants are grown as cover crops in which cases the spray should be carefully applied to prevent poisoning the cover crop flowers and the resultant loss of bees which in bad, stormy, cold weather at bloom periods, when bees are not very active anyway, is serious. Such crops as buckwheat, alfalfa, sweet clover, cotton, tomato, melon, cranberry, etc., are largely dependent on bees for full crops. Where tomatoes and cucumbers are grown under glass, a colony of bees is kept in the house for the special purpose of pollination. Other insects serve as pollination agents but they are not always on the job like honey-bees.

Honey-bees are frequently but wrongly accused of injuring sound fruits. They have mouth parts that do not permit them to cut into the skin of fruits and the damage is usually done by wasps, birds, insects or fungi, then because the bees will suck the juice from the injured fruits they get blamed for the damage. If bees are confined with a bunch of sound grapes or other fruits they will starve without doing damage, as they are unable to penetrate the skin of the fruit.

Directions for handling bees can be given in as brief an article as this, but a person must have a reasonable understanding of their habits to get best returns. The beekeeper should know the life history, habits and diseases of bees themselves, and be familiar with equipment, care and management the whole year through to thoroughly enjoy and profit from beekeeping. Active workers and good queens in suitable hives are requisites. The Italian bees are the best and can be purchased from dealers. In purchasing locally be sure the bees are not diseased or rabble will follow.

FOUR FARM PROBLEMS.

C. O. Moser, President of the National Cooperative Council and Vice-President of the American Cotton Cooperative Association, recently pointed out that the prosperity of the farmer depends upon four things:

1. The cost of his production.
2. The volume of his production.
3. The price he obtains for what he produces.
4. The price he pays for what he buys.

As Mr. Moser observed, the first two are largely the problems of the individual. The next two are mainly the problems of the farmer as a group. They are the reason for being of the cooperative movement.

No single farmer, dealing with a large buying or selling organization, can have a voice in price. He must take what he is offered or lose the business. When he joins with thousands of other farmers whose problems and hopes are one with his, the shoe is on the other foot. The buying or selling organization has met its equal—and the price is much more likely to be a fair one.

No cooperative, of course, can raise prices to the desired level in times like these. What they can do is to keep them higher than they would otherwise be and prepare the groundwork for future achievements. All over the country the cooperative movement is making gains, both in strength and membership, and the results are beginning to show. When the economic clouds finally clear, an organized agriculture can be ready for a period of prosperity unprecedented in this century.—Industrial News Review.

The largest cotton yield reported by a 4-H club member in Lamar county this year is by a girl, Ruby Lee Crawford of Noble Club. She made 1020 pounds of lint on 2 1-2 acres which gave her $78.20 for her labor and investment.

From a 6-acre tract of land that produced less than 100 pounds of small native pecans 15 years ago, Harry Kneese in Gillespie county recently sold $200 worth of fine pecans from trees budded to improved varieties 8 years ago.

FARM TAXES A BURDEN.

"One phase of the American farmer's troubles is largely in his own hands," Horace Bowler, president of The American Agricultural Chemical Company, pointed out in a recent interview, "and this is the load of local taxes. Here he could do something for himself in voting to stop the onerous taxation which has prevailed everywhere in America during the last decade and is now at its peak."

"The farm vote is the controlling one in the agricultural states, and it only requires united effort on his part to bring about the remedy. He is an easy victim of the tax-eater, having nothing to swear off. His possessions are easily assessed. Land and buildings cannot run away; cattle, sheep and swine are plainly visible to the assessor. The village banker and money-lender who live off the farmer's troubles, can evade with ease; he alone cannot escape."

"Accordingly, his remedy is to take hold of local government and bring the outlays down to reason. I would not deplore good roads, but they have laid a tremendous load upon the class that makes the least use of them. The farmer has to carry the cost of thousands of miles of speedways for town users. Built mainly on bonds these have placed a permanent load upon his back. This is usually supplemented by the rising cost of schools and other town items, and while the value of his crops has gone lower and lower, his taxes have increased."

"Primarily the farmer should aim at tax reduction, and if possible change the system of levying it on valuation of land which is principally guess-work, to one based on income. This would be a fairer and more equitable method than an arbitrary estimate of what the farm land might be sold for. Income in America fixes the value of stocks and bonds. Industry and property in securities pay upon returns that are actual. Why should not the farmer have the same privilege? A farm is just as much of a plant as a factory or a railroad, and its earnings should furnish the standard for taxation."

"This is on the side of just treatment and properly fixing the load, such as the farmer never has had. Awaiting this, his next step is to take a stern hand in trimming town and county budgets so that his load will be lightened. This is where he can most help himself."

After his crop was planted on a newly terraced land last spring, J. W. Spencer of Randall county served notice on the county agent that never again he bother with point rows but would plow straight over the terraces. With a feed crop fully 30 per cent greater than nearby unterraced land in a dry season he has changed his mind and plans to continue running his rows with the terrace rather than across them.

SWEET CLOVER.

By P. G. Holden

Field Director, Agricultural Extension Department, International Harvester Company.

For many years we have observed sweet clover, melilotus, or bee clover, as it is often called, growing voluntarily under adverse conditions, by the roadside, in fence corners, along the ditches in irrigated sections and on unoccupied land in nearly every state.

It has been commonly regarded as a weed and a great nuisance, but, in spite of the prejudice against it and misunderstanding regarding its agricultural value, many experiments conducted within comparatively recent years to ascertain its adaptability, feeding value, and effect upon the soil have pretty definitely determined its importance as a farm crop.

Its adaptability to soil and climatic conditions are particularly a strong feature in its favor. It will endure great extremes of temperature and grow on soils too poor for alfalfa and under conditions where other grasses failed to produce a crop before it.

Before condemning sweet clover consider that: It is not a weed; like alfalfa, it is rich in protein; will not bloat cattle or sheep; equal to alfalfa for pasture; is a great milk producer; contains more protein than red clover; is a great soil enriching crop; its roots decay rapidly, adding much nitrogen and humus to the soil; grows and will produce a crop in all parts of the United States; seeds freely in both humid and dry sections; will prevent erosion and grow under conditions where clover and alfalfa fail.

Manufacture of work clothes in Texas accounts for the employment of 3,582 persons with a payroll of $2,179,000 per annum and annual production valued at $9,159,000. Two thousand and ninety-seven persons are employed in Texas factories making women's clothing with annual payrolls of $1,350,000 and production of $5,310,000.

MAKES WOMEN LOSE FAT

Miss Rea M. Haines of Dayton, Ohio, writes: "I weighed 180 so started to take Kruschen. I never was so surprised as when I weighed myself the first week—I lost 7 pounds. I just bought my 3rd jar and am down to 145—am still taking them and never felt better in my life." (June 17, 1932).

To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a few cents—get it at W. H. WINDROW's or any drug store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and harmless way to lose fat—your money gladly returned.

Don't accept anything but Kruschen because you must reduce safely. Mail orders filled.

Where Does She Get Her "Pep?"

SHE doesn't look seventy. Nor feel that old. The woman who stimulates her organs can have energy that women half her age will envy!

At middle-age your vital organs begin to slow down. You may not be sick, simply sluggish. But why endure a condition of half-health when there's a stimulant that will set a stagnant system to new life and energy in a week's time?

This remarkable stimulant is perfectly harmless. It is, in fact, a family doctor's prescription. So, if you're tired of trying every patent medicine that comes along, tell the druggist you want a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a bit of this delicious syrup every day or so, until you know by the way you feel that your lazy liver is again active, and your bowels are poison-free.

Men, women, and children who are run-down, who tire easily, get bilious spells or have frequent headaches, are soon straightened out when they get this prescriptional preparation of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh laxative herbs. (Syrup pepsin is all the help the bowels need, and you do not form the very bad habit of always taking cathartics.)

Keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin in the house, and take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. It is all that a great many people ever take to keep strong and vigorous, and absolutely free from constipation.
